RIDGEWOOD, N. J., March 6.-While rying to prevent two robbers from lundering the home of his sweetheart, Louis Rosendale, bwenty-one years old, was shot and instantly killed here last only a fow months. He had found employment as a coachman with Dr. W L. Vroom, who lives on Ridgewood

Le Vroom, who lives on Ridgewood age and young woman who is employed as a maid by Miss Van Peak who lives on Franklin avenue.

The young couple were sitting in the kitchen and Miss Van Peak was upstains, when a noise was heard at the door of the kitchen opening onto the back yard.

The girl went to the door and opened it, whereupon a revolver was thrust into the face and a voice said: "Don't cry out or we will kill you." Despite this command the maid gave a shriek and Rosendale jumped to his feet just as two masked men forced their way into the kitchen, shoving the servant to one side. Rosendale made a rush for the men, one of whom discharged a servelyer at him. The first disagreement or a reversal of judgment br a higher court.

"Id do not think there is really any thing in the charge against these men," and the ozachman fell to the ground.

Enriest Johnson, twenty-four years old, was arrested by Chief Pulls on guspicion of being concerned in the shooting, and is now in the County Jail in Hacken-sack. The inquest will be opened at 7 o'clook on Friday evening next.

Second Trial, and the City on the table and Tavino left the room, feeling confident that Palino would select the younger woman. Upon his return he was surprised to find Palino, with his arms around the elder woman's neck, while the latter was struggling duties to clay. They are charged with collecting illegal trial fees of 12 each from attorneys in cases on for a second trial after disagreement or a reversal of judgment br a higher court.

"Id do not think there is really any thing in the charge against these men," as bargain." replied Palino, "and I'll just take this one."

The clerks are not supposed to the shooting, and it he charge against these men, and they have collected what is known is the County Jail in Hacken-sack. The inquest will be opened at 7 o'clook on Friday evening next.

FOUND DEAD WITH GAS TURNED ON

Doctor Declares Death Due to Ac cident, but Police Record Case Suicide.

Although the police of the West Sixty-eight. Sixty-eight street station reported that Andrew Kraft, thirty-eight, of No, 187 West Sixty-eventh street, committed suicide by inhaling gas, his family, friends and the physician who was called to attend him declare that his death was due to accident.

Kraft, who was a chef at No, 588 Broadway, was found dead in his home early to-day with the gas turned on. The police could find no note he left, nor could they learn of any reason he had for taking his life. Nevertheless they recorded him as a suicide. Kraft's family say he turned the gas cook too far in putting out the light last night.

REV. JOHN P. LYNCH DEAD.

When the man was found it was first cuspected that he had been a violan of four piay. A telegram in his possession bore the name of Myr. Lavelle, of the Cathedral. The room was filled with see and several chairs were broken.

Agr. Lavelle told the police the man these an undersumate who had strayed from the fold. Physicians who attended him said he was suffering from the effects of too much liquid.

Dockstader has uncovered some the effects of too much liquid.

"A bargain's a bargain." replied Palliro, "and I'll just take this one."

He then attempted to drag off Mrs. Tavino by force. The husband interfered and a general fight ensued. Mrs. Tavino grabbed an axe, the busband selsed a rasior and the sister-in-law a broom. Palino, finding escape by the door impossible, took a flying lear through the window, which is on the third story, but as he did so he lost a part of his ear from the skilfully wielded rasor.

He landed in a snow pile, where he was found and taken to the City Hospital. After telling his tale to the police Mr. and Mrs. Tavino were arrested. They were held to-day for the Grand ury.
